Dear George: I now have instructions from my client with regard to the delinquent report of your expert witness Frank Perez. As you recall, we gave short-notice access to the aircraft about 6 months ago to accommodate Mr. Perez as he happened to be visiting Guam on other matters. After putting the matter before the Court, a resolution was reached which was quite simple: Mr. Perez was permitted to inspect the aircraft on short notice and we would get a copy of his report. It is now time for Mr. Perez and your client to live up to their end of the bargain. Our granting short-notice access to Mr. Perez saved your client thousands of dollars which would have been spent to bring Mr. Perez to Guam on a trip dedicated for this case. I am confident Judge Munson would not view favorably that Mr. Perez has yet to deliver his report after having spent court time mediated arrangements which saved your client time and money. Please be advised that unless the report is provided not later than January 31, 2007, we will request a conference with the court to resolve this issue. Additionally, no discovery from Freedom Air employees will be permitted until we have Mr. Perez's report.

Best regards,

David Ledger

So much for cooperation. I can't say that I'm surprised by this.

George.
